ELUL - TISHREI 5786

THE SHOFAR

Elul is the month preceding Rosh Hashanah and serves as a bridge from one year to the next. It is a time to reflect on the past and prepare for the upcoming year on the Jewish calendar. We blow the shofar daily during the month of Elul, a powerful call to open our hearts. The shofar is the cry of our soul, yearning to reconnect with our Creator. The sound of the shofar reminds us to increase our Teshuva (repentance), Tefilah (prayer), and Tzedaka (charity). It urges us to mend past mistakes and dedicate ourselves to a better future. The soul-stirring sounds of the shofar inspire us to come closer to G-d and remind us of the transformative potential within each of us.

The Torah calls Rosh Hashanah the “day of the shofar blast.” The central mitzvah of Rosh Hashanah (the Jewish New Year) is to hear the shofar being blown—ideally as part of the prayer service in the synagogue.

OCTOBER

TISHREI 5786 - CHESHVAN

SHABBAT

Since Sarah our matriarch, Jewish women have been lighting Shabbat candles on Friday, eighteen minutes before sunset. For millennia, this profound act of faith and tradition ushers the holiness of Shabbat into the home. As the flames are kindled, an atmosphere of peace and tranquility pervades the home, inviting G-d's presence and blessing. These transformative moments are marked by quiet moments of individual prayer. The flickering light not only dispels physical darkness but also illuminates the spiritual darkness that can pervade our inner and outer worlds. This sacred practice highlights the essential role of women in cultivating an atmosphere of holiness, reflection, and shalom bayit - peace in the home. Each week, the Shabbat candles transition our homes from the mundane to the sacred, while fostering a sense of connection and tranquility.

NOVEMBER

CHESHVAN - KISLEV

RACHEL'S TOMB

Rachel, the matriarch of the Jewish people and wife of Jacob, passed away on the 11th of Cheshvan. Jacob buried her on the side of the road because he foresaw that in the future, following the destruction of the First Temple in 423 BCE, the Jews would be driven from their homes and forced into exile in Babylon. On their dispirited march, they would pass on this very road and cry to Rachel. They would take courage from her presence, and she would beseech G-d on their behalf.

Rachel is a continuous source of comfort to her children—praying for her children and eliciting the divine promise of her children's return to their Promised Land.

KISLEV - TEVET

CHANUKAH

Over 2,000 years ago, the Syrian-Greek empire sought to impose its culture and suppress Jewish practice and faith, but a small band of Jews, the Maccabees, stood up for G-d and their beliefs, and miraculously triumphed. When they reclaimed the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, they found only enough pure olive oil to light the menorah for one day, yet it burned for eight days until new oil could be procured.

Two millennia later, in millions of Jewish homes worldwide, we kindle our menorahs as a reminder that light always triumphs over darkness. The menorah is a symbol of Jewish faith, a reminder that regardless of the darkness surrounding us, we can add light, one candle, one moment at a time. Each of us must be a menorah and illuminate the world with acts of goodness and kindness.

TEVET - SHEVAT

PRAYER

In Judaism, prayer is reflective. It's a moment in time where we pause and reflect on ourselves. Where are we, and where do we want to be? It's a time of reflection and self-accounting. It is also a time of connection to our souls, G-d, and our greater Jewish community.

When we recite the ancient words of the prayers, facing Jerusalem, we join millions of Jews around the globe and connect with millennia of Jews from our past who recite the same prayers. Perhaps that is one of the many reasons our prayers are crafted in the plural. We don't pray for me, we pray for us. More than just being about ourselves, prayer is a time for us to go beyond ourselves and connect with the greater Jewish community.

FEBRUARY

SHEVAT - ADAR

TREE'S NEW YEAR

There are seven species of fruit and grain which the Torah mentions specifically in connection to the Land of Israel. Although Israel is famous for its produce, there is something unique about these seven species of: wheat, barley, pomegranates, figs, dates, olives, and grapes.

These seven species can be categorized into grains and fruit from trees. Grains, the necessary fuel for our physical self, and fruits, which add pleasure to life, are both crucial. This is why they are included in the blessing for the land of Israel.

On the 15th of Shevat, the New Year for Trees, there is a custom to eat from the seven species. While all are significant, we especially focus on the five fruits that grow on trees. This tradition reminds us that just as trees bear fruit, we too can cultivate holiness in our lives through mitzvot. It encourages us to find joy and meaning in our Jewish practices, making our spiritual growth something to be savored..

MARCH

ADAR - NISSAN

PURIM

Joy is an essential part of Judaism. The Torah teaches, "Ivdu Et Hashem B'Simcha"—serve G-d with joy. The Talmud instructs that with the arrival of Adar, we must increase in our joy. But why does G-d want us to be happy?

There are many perspectives on life. We can see it as an endless monotony of days following one from the next. We can focus on the darkness and confusion, or we can see opportunities to help others, connect with G-d, and do good. When we choose to see these opportunities, joy naturally follows. This joy isn't just an emotion but a fundamental way to serve G-d and fulfill our purpose. By embracing this joyful outlook, we transform our lives and the world, fulfilling G-d's mandate to each of us.

APRIL

NISSAN - IYAR

THE SPLITTING OF THE SEA

Just one week after the miraculous exile from Egypt, the fledgling Jewish nation was in peril. The mighty Egyptian army was behind them, and the Red Sea was in front. The Jewish nation was divided. Was their independence to be so short-lived? Some advocated fighting the Egyptians, others returning to slavery in Egypt. Some wished to pray to G-d for salvation, and others were ready to throw themselves into the sea. One man began walking into the sea, and when the water reached his face, it miraculously split, allowing safe passage for the Jews. When we face challenges all around us, the lesson is to continue moving forward, one step at a time.

SHAVUOT - TORAH STUDY

Shavuot celebrates G-d giving us the Torah on Mount Sinai. Over 3,000 years ago, during this pivotal moment, G-d broke the barrier between heaven and earth to gift us the Torah. This sacred text is the ultimate blueprint for life, each word layered with profound meaning and interpretation. On Shavuot, we recognize that each time we study even a single verse of the Torah, we connect deeply with G-d's will and wisdom, becoming one with G-d Himself. The power of Torah lies in its ability to change and transform, guiding and enriching every aspect of our lives. Celebrating Shavuot, we reaffirm our commitment to Torah study and applying its lessons to our daily lives and routines.

MIKVAH - FAMILY PURITY

There's a building whose construction takes precedence over a synagogue. A synagogue may even be sold to raise funds for this building. This is a mikvah, a ritual pool of water constructed according to the exact specifications outlined in Jewish law. Immersion in a mikvah has the power to spiritually transform. The primary function of the mikvah today is its use in the observance of the Jewish "Family Purity" laws. These laws have the power to sanctify the most intimate aspects of our relationships, turning them into a vehicle for sacred blessing while reinforcing the bond between husband and wife and drawing G-d's presence into their home and family, blessing their relationship with holiness and peace.

JULY

TAMMUZ - MENACHEM AV

THREE WEEKS

The Three Weeks, between the 17th of Tammuz and 9 of Av, is a period of mourning for the destruction of both holy Temples in Jerusalem. Yet, within this sorrow lies a profound opportunity for spiritual growth. Although there are specific mourning practices during this time, our focus should be on learning about and preparing for the coming of Moshiach. Our study of the Torah, especially the teachings on redemption, transforms our loss and sorrow into hope and action for a better tomorrow. By enhancing our mitzvot, acts of kindness, and deepening our connection to Hashem, we actively participate in the ultimate healing and transformation of the world. This period is not meant to be merely about remembering the past but also about paving the way for a future of global peace through the coming of Moshiach.

MENACHEM AV - ELUL

HOLY TEMPLE

The Beit Hamikdash, the Holy Temple in Jerusalem, was the spiritual heart of the Jewish people and a space that symbolized our deepest connection to Hashem. Its destruction on the 9th of Av, first by the Babylonians and later by the Romans, makes this day the saddest on our Jewish calendar. The day of Tisha B'Av is observed with fasting, mourning, prayer, and reflection on our immense loss. The Temple was not just a physical structure but a place where the Divine Presence rested, a physical home for G-d here in this world. Its loss signifies a rupture in our direct spiritual connection. Yet our sages teach us that within each of our homes and hearts, we can build our own miniature Temples, a home for G-d. How can we ensure that our homes are places where G-d feels welcome?

THE POMEGRANATE

It is customary to eat pomegranates on Rosh Hashanah, because their many seeds remind us of the many Mitzvot that we do. There is however, a deeper explanation. When we eat a pomegranate, we disregard the peel and only eat the sweet fruit inside. So too we are asking G-d, that He should disregard our "peel," our external appearances. Instead, we ask that He focus on our "sweet fruit," our desire within us to connect with Him.
